—John H. Shunk one of Waik Hill's prosperous farmers met with quite a loss in the death of one of his most valuable team horses last Saturday. The animal had shown no sign of sickness or did not seem in any way "out of sorts," yet fell dead before the harness could be removed while hitched to the plow. The loss falls heavily upon Mr. Shunk, doubly so at this particular season of the year, when he is in the midst of an already backward spring's work on the farm.

—Calvin M. Arner of this place yesterday filed suit in civil action in Prothonotary Maxwell's office against the Times Publishing Co., Incorporated, publishers of the Warren Evening Times, for damages in the sum of $5000, which the plaintiff alleges he sustained by the publication on May 6, 1914, of an article under the caption, "Cripple Enters Claim Against Collins Estate." The case will be set down for trial in the Forest County court at next September term.

—Amos Clinger of Tidoute was a visitor in town Thursday and met Ed. Harmon the Lickingville horseman who brought in a fine team of four-year-olds for him and which will be used on his lease near Old Fagundus. The naked team weighed 3200 pounds and they are sound as a dollar. Before sending the handsome pair to the lease Mr. Clinger had them hooked to a bran splinter new wagon of J. C. Scowden's well known make, and the teamster drove out of town as happy as a clam in high tide.

—John K. Cori, aged 65 years, one of the prominent and respected citizens of Corry, Pa., died at his home on Tuesday evening, May 19th, 1914, after a long illness of Bright's disease. Besides his wife, who was formerly Miss Eliza A. Mealy of this county, he is survived by two sons and one daughter. The funeral was held Friday afternoon at his home, with interment in the Corry cemetery. Among those who attended the services were Mrs. W. C. Imel, of Tionesta, a sister of the deceased, and Adam Mealy of Tionesta township, Samuel Mealy of Marienville, and Mrs. W. A. Kinch of Kellettville, brothers and sister of Mrs. Mealy.

—The Tionesta school board at a meeting Monday night elected the following teachers for the coming year and fixed the salaries as follows: Principal, L. P. White, $90; assistant principal, Ruth Dimond, $75; second assistant principal, Olive Starkweather, $60; No. 4, not elected; No. 5, Evelyn Grove, $60; No. 2, not elected; No. 1, Sarah Carson, $50. Miss Starkweather is a new teacher and comes here from Oberlin, Ohio. The board has lengthened the high school course to four years, necessitating a nine months term and an extra teacher, with eight months for the lower grades. The tax levy was fixed at 22 mills, a raise of four mills over last year.

—Memorial services at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning were quite well attended. Rev. H. L. Dunlavy of the M. E. church delivered a splendid discourse taking as his text the familiar words in Paul's Second Epistle to Timothy: "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith." Assisting in the impressive services were Rev. H. A. Bailey and Rev. B. F. Felt, and the choir rendered some especially sweet music for the occasion. The decorations were pretty and appropriate, including flags, ferns and flowers. The attendance of veterans of the civil war, though small, included nearly every one of the "old boys" that is left in our town.

The Strains Are Acquitted.

The trial of George and Adda Strain, charged with the murder of Albert Allen resulted in a verdict of acquittal of both defendants on Thursday night last. The summing up of the attorneys on either side and the Judge's charge closed at 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon, and the jurors retired at once for deliberation. They returned at 10:30 with a verdict of "not guilty," having been out a trifle over five hours. The court immediately discharged the prisoners and they left on the train Friday morning for their home near Hunter's camp, five miles out from Trunkville toward Neiltown, Harmony township, in the vicinity of which Allen lost his life as the result of three knife wounds on the afternoon of March 2d, last.

The case was earnestly contested on both sides, the main witness for the defense being Mrs. Strain herself. She told in detail that Allen had forced her out of the sled in which they were riding and dragged her down into the woods, and after much struggling on her part she had regained possession of the knife which Allen had taken from her, and inflicted the wounds in his (Allen's) leg, hip and back, which resulted in the death of Allen at the home of J. L. Glenn about 7 o'clock in the evening in question. Evidently the jury accepted this version of the case and on that theory rendered their verdict, which was not a surprise to most of those who followed the case to the end.

The case was ably contested on both sides, and the pleas of the counsel were among the ablest that have been heard in a Forest county court for several years. Judge Hinckley's charge to the jury was a very able one and impartial in every word. The costs in this case are of course upon the county and will reach about $1,500.

Grand Jury's Report.

We visited and inspected the County buildings and find them in good order, clean and well kept.

We further report however, that in regard to the County Home, the Grand Jury recommends that the following improvements be made:

Water system and lavatories be put in first class condition. A cave suitable for storing of provisions such as vegetables be built. Sidewalks be repaired.

The Grand Jury emphatically recommends that the stock now on the farm be replaced gradually with blooded stock, both cattle and hogs, and that the orchard be examined either by men from State Agricultural Department or some person familiar with scientific care of orchards and that the suggestions of the examining person be carried out.

It is suggested that the State Agricultural Department be requested to hold orchard demonstrations at the County Home. L. E. Fitzgerald, Foreman, N. P. Wheeler, Secretary.

PERSONAL.

—George T. Watts of New York City is spending the week with Tionesta friends.

—Miss Blanche Pease was at home Thursday and Friday from her school work in Akron, Ohio.

—Mrs. Clifford Foreman and son are spending the week with her sister, Mrs. S. O. Steele, in Mayburg.

—J. P. Grove and son James will leave this week for Portsmouth, Ohio, in which vicinity they will resume drilling operations.

—W. C. Imel, agent for the P. R. R., is taking a ten-day vacation and his place here is being filled by J. F. Hackett of Oil City.

—John F. Cotter was in Buffalo and Springville, N. Y., Sunday and Monday, making the trip by auto with H. H. Kies, of Springville.

—Mrs. A. W. Zahnleiter and little daughter and son of New Britain, Conn., are paying a welcome visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Scowden.

—Our old friend W. A. Ekis, of Barnett township, who was serving his country as a juror last week, gave us a pleasant call before leaving for home Friday.

—Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Anderson and daughter Maude Elizabeth visited Mrs. Fred. Davis in Erie, Thursday and Friday, making the trip with Harry Bruner in his auto.

—Miss Laura Smutz, unsolicitedly, was elected principal of the Kinzua high school.—Tidoute News. Miss Smutz was very ably filled the position of principal of the East Hickory high school for the past three years.

—Low Mensch, Marienville's affable hardware merchant, automobile agent and all around good fellow, was a latter week visitor in this end of the county prescribing for those who have been exposed to the auto fever.

—O. E. Rupert brought in the election returns from Lynch last week and remained over a couple of days to take in sights of the city. He was accompanied by his daughter Miss Lois, and they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Donley while here.

—Mrs. L. E. Walters and niece, Miss Alice McCullough, of Seattle, Wash., and Mrs. George Matha and three children, of Ostrander, Wash., arrived in the east Saturday and will make an extended visit with relatives and friends at their former home on Nebraska.

—City Treasurer Bromley and friend W. A. Russ were up from Oil City yesterday trying the troubling before the weather and other conditions should become too "dry" for the sport. They are too gamey to admit they didn't meet with satisfactory success in all respects.

—Many Tionesta friends will be interested to learn that Miss Nancy Morrow, who has very acceptably filled the difficult position of substitute teacher in the Oil City schools during the past winter, has been elected teacher of English and assistant preceptress in the Seattle Seminary, Washington state, and has decided to accept the proffer. Miss Morrow's eastern friends know that she will more than make good in this trying position, and will wish her every joy in her new home in the Pacific coast state.

Tionesta Boy Weds Oklahoma Girl.

The following interesting account of the marriage of a former young Tionesta gentleman to one of Oklahoma's fair daughters, is taken from the Vinita, Okla., Leader of May 21, 1914, and will be read with pleasure by John's many eastern friends, who will join the REPUBLICAN in hearty congratulations and best wishes to John and his amiable bride on this joyous occasion:

"The marriage of Mr. John Lawrence to Miss Carrie Lee Stevens was solemnized at the new home of the young couple last Monday evening at eight o'clock by Rev. J. E. Pershing of Oklahoma City. Only the immediate relatives and friends of the two were present and the wedding quiet, partly because of the recent injury of the bridegroom. This event has been one for several months expected about the city by their many friends, yet came as a surprise to many. Both of the young people are well known in Vinita, the groom having held a position with the Milliken Oil Refinery for the past two years. Mr. Lawrence came to this state from Pennsylvania and during his residence in this city has made friends of all who knew him. He was injured recently while playing baseball, sustaining a badly broken knee and has been confined to his bed the greater part of the time since. The bride has lived here the greater part of her life, and has been among the most popular of the young business girls, she having held a position with the Vinita National bank. Miss Stevens has been most popular in all walks of her life and easily numbers her friends by her acquaintances. Her sunny nature and sweet disposition winning way to the hearts of everyone. All will wish them both all happiness and prosperity in the new life into which they have embarked. The happy young couple will make their home on North Scraper street in the former G. O. Alexander property, which the bridegroom had already for them prior to the marriage. The ceremony was performed at this place and the two begin their lives together housekeeping here at once, and soon will announce themselves at home to their host of friends."

John writes that he is recovering rapidly from his injuries and that his physician assures him his knee will come out all right and be as good as ever.

Ice Cream.

All orders for ice cream received on Saturday will be delivered on Sunday at your home. Store open from 11 a. m. to 1:30 p. m., and 5 to 7 p. m. Get it at Walker's, it's better. On the corner, it's better.

Farm For Sale.

Fifty-three acres, all cleared and under cultivation, except 10 acres which is fairly covered with growing timber. House and good barn, good water well, and all fences in good condition. Four miles from Tionesta, on German Hill road, beyond Kieffer farm. Prices and terms reasonable. NICHOLAS KENBUSH.

Sick Headache.

Mrs. A. L. Loeckie, East Rochester, N. Y., was a victim of sick headache and dizziness, caused by a badly weakened and debilitated condition of her stomach, when she began taking Chamberlain's Tablets. She says, "I found them pleasant to take, also mild and effective. In a few weeks' time I was restored to my former good health." For sale by all dealers.

A Fine Recognition Of Ability.

The following telegram sent by Miss Katharine Osgood from Akron, Ohio, to Miss Blanche Pease, who was here last Thursday, will be of interest to our readers:

"Teachers elected last night. Twelve of the four hundred teachers given special raises. Dr. Hotchkiss stated that their ability merited same. We are in that list. We got regular raises and special of $50.00, making $80.00. Happy surprise because unexpected and unsought."

The many friends of these young ladies will be gratified that their ability has been so recognized by the superintendent of the Akron schools, as evidenced by the fact that instead of the scheduled $25 raise per year, they were given $75.

Chamberlain's Liniment.

This preparation is intended especially for rheumatism, lame back, sprains and like ailments. It is a favorite with people who are well acquainted with its splendid qualities. Mrs. Charles Tanner, Wabash, Ind., says of it, "I have found Chamberlain's Liniment the best thing for lame back and sprains I have ever used. It works like a charm and relieves pain and soreness. It has been used by others of my family as well as myself for upward of twenty years." 25 and 50 cent bottles. For sale by all dealers.

Recent Deaths.

SIOWORTH.
Elizabeth Fellers, widow of the late Samuel Sigworth, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Wallace Mills, near Newmansville, at 2 o'clock p. m., Tuesday, May 25, 1914, after a week's illness of paralysis, although her health for some months had been declining. She was aged 74 years, and was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Fellers, for many years well known residents on the road leading from Newmansville to Lickingville, Clarion county. Her husband died about twelve years ago, since which she had made her home with her children, who made life pleasant for her in her declining years. Mrs. Sigworth united with the church in early life, and at the time of her death was a devout member of the United Evangelical church. A woman of noble Christian character, she was identified with all the branches of the church of her faith and was never absent from the religious meetings when health permitted her presence, and her work in the Sabbath school, in which she had been a teacher for many years, was never irksome to her. Surviving her are these children: Wm. J. of New Bethlehem, Pa., Harrison of Johnstown, Pa., C. Wesley, of Reading, Pa., Ella, wife of Rev. Slagle of Franklin, Riley of Washington twp., Clarion county, Belle, wife of Wallace Mills, living on the old homestead, Jennie wife of J. L. Hepler of Tionesta, and Warren of Cleveland, Ohio. Funeral arrangements had not been decided upon when this paper went to press.

CARSON.
The mysterious angel of death has again hovered over our beautiful valley and called to rest one of Forest county's choicest women, and no one is able to estimate the loss to the community in which, for many years, the name of Mrs. J. G. Carson has been a familiar household word. While her years of active service for others number more than half a century, yet her going from us seems premature and it was with profound sorrow we learned that she had passed away forever from our sight, and that we should never again, in this world, look upon the kind face and welcome smile of our friend of many years. Mrs. Carson passed away about two o'clock Monday morning, May 25, 1914, at her home in West Hickory, Pa.

Charles Hood Carson was born in Tionesta, June 21, 1856. She was the eldest of seven children born to William and Martha Walters Hood, esteemed residents of Tionesta. She was educated in the public schools of this place and her keen intellect was fitted in a special way for the many avenues of service for humanity she was called upon to enter in later years.

On October 8, 1874, she became the wife of James Guillen Carson of Tionesta. This proved a happy union and the home of this well-mated couple became the center of attraction for a large circle of friends and a place where hospitality was unstinted and a cordial welcome extended to all by the companionable host and hostess. To them were born four sons and two daughters, all of whom grew to manhood and womanhood; William Washington of Nelson, British Columbia; James Harvey of Okanogan, B. C.; Charles Frederick of Brownsville, Pa.; Amos Hood of West Hickory, Pa.; Martha Josephine, wife of John F. Sheasley of Kittanning, Pa., and Nellie, wife of William Nourse of Brownsville. Besides her husband and children, the following brothers and sisters survive her: Anne Elizabeth, wife of James H. Fones; Charles; Kate M., wife of Robert L. Haslet; William and Tilden, all of Tionesta.

In 1885 Mrs. Carson was converted in the Methodist Episcopal church under the ministry of Rev. Francis M. Small, and at once became an earnest, active christian and was recognized as one of the leading forces in church work wherever she was known. At the same time she joined the great army of white ribboners and cast her influence on the side of temperance. In 1890 Mr. Carson's business as a contractor caused the removal of the family from Tionesta to Nebraska, where they lived for six years, when they moved to West Hickory, which has since been their home. Both at Nebraska and West Hickory Mrs. Carson became a leader in church work and the W. C. T. U., serving as president of both unions as well as filling an important position on the executive committee of the county W. C. T. U. for many years. She was intensely patriotic, being descended from the well known Hanson family, early settlers of Venango county, who figured in the Revolutionary conflict in 76. She was a charter member of the Woman's Relief Corps of Tionesta and remained an active member till it disbanded a few months ago.

But it was in the quiet sphere as wife, mother and daughter, sister and friend where she found her greatest joy and where her gentle but powerful influence was deeply and constantly felt. Unselfish to a fault, she ministered to all the needs of the community, and to win such love as she won in life, to leave behind so dear a memory as she left is not the lot of everyone. The good she has done—the influence of her life will be more lasting than the towering oak of the forest, or the polished block of granite. Sorrowfully, it seems, this beautiful life is ended, although for some time her ill health had been a great anxiety to her family. After a few days' serious illness she passed into the unseen realm which her life had so well fitted her to enter, and the spirit of one "pure in heart" was permitted to look upon the splendors of the New Jerusalem.

The funeral services will be held at the family residence this Wednesday, afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, to be followed by interment in Riverside cemetery, Tionesta, Rev. W. W. Dale of West Hickory, and Rev. B. J. Foulke of Erie, officiating.

Let us supply you with the new tools you'll be wanting this Spring and Summer. We've anticipated your needs and have the goods and utensils to fill the bill. Anything from a

is to be found in our well selected stock. And then we have the best variety and the surest grower in the line of GARDEN and FLOWER SEEDS.

Fishing Tackle,

Yes, we have that, too, and in the best quality of goods. It is a well established fact that our hooks, lines and rods catch and hold them when all others fail.
